

Official Court Reporter

External Job Posting Date

September 29, 2017

Salary: $48,820.00/Year

City of Job Vacancy: Gering, Nebraska

County: Scotts Bluff, District 12

Hon. Andrea Miller, District Judge 12th Judicial District, 1725 10th Street, Gering, NE 69341

The Hon. Andrea Miller is accepting applications for a full-time Official Court Reporter. Official court reporters must be competent in the making, preserving, transcribing, and delivery of a verbatim record of trial and other proceedings through the use of either pen or machine shorthand. Other duties may be assigned by the appointing judge.

Competence must be demonstrated by meeting the testing requirements as set out in the Nebraska Supreme Court Rules regarding Court Reporting Personnel (equivalent of an RPR and most CSRs for shorthand court reporters). The starting date for this position is immediately. Salary for this position will be based on experience after meeting the testing requirements. This full time position includes benefits and mileage reimbursement. Position is open until filled. Please see instructions to apply below.

Send cover letter, resume, and 3 references to:

Hon. Andrea Miller
District Court Judge
12th Judicial District
1725 10th Street
Gering, NE 69341
Email: lawmom05@gmail.com

Gering, Nebraska, is the sister city of Scottsbluff with the North Platte River running in between. Gering is in the Panhandle of Nebraska and is 30 miles from the Wyoming border; 1.5 hours from Cheyenne, Wyoming; 3 hours from Denver, Colorado; and 4 hours from the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota. For the hiking enthusiast, nearby one can travel to the Scotts Bluff National Monument and Wildcat Hills State Recreation Center which have several hiking trails. There is also the Western Nebraska Regional Airport servicing the area.

Direct general inquiries regarding working as a reporter in Nebraska to Sondra W. Petersen, RMR, CRR, CSR, Placement Chairperson for the Nebraska Court Reporters Association (NeCRA), petersenreporting@msn.com.